What should I do if my bus doesn't turn up in the morning?

If your bus doesn't turn up, the school will realise this fairly quickly after 8.50am. So don't panic. Remember, if a bus has failed to pick you up, it has also failed to pick up all the students along the same route. Here's what you should do:

- If your bus doesn't arrive on time, wait for at least another 15 minutes.
- If there are only a few of you, one of the students should phone school for instructions. The rest of you should wait at the bus stop until this person gets through to school and is given advice on what to do next.
- The school number is 01773 716396
- If you can't get through to school and the bus still hasn't arrived, return to your own home. Only go to another student's house if you can't get back inside your own home or if you can't go to a close relative or a trusted neighbour whose name your parent has given you. Whichever house you go to, phone your parents to tell them where you are and what the problem is.
- If you go back to your own home and there's no-one in, please make sure to phone school to let us know where you are. Phone your parents if they're at work to let them know as well. If your parents are at home, ask them to take you to school. If they can't, they should phone the school and explain what has happened..
- Walking to school: Please discuss this option with your parents and follow their advice at all times. If there are problems with buses, they'll know better than the teachers whether you are safe to walk to school. If the weather is very bad, don't put yourself at unnecessary risk. Keep to the pavements and avoid walking across fields or on the road itself.

What should I do if my bus at the end of the school day?

If you miss your bus at the end of school do not panic. Go to the main school reception where someone will either ring home or try and contact a family member. Do not try to get home on your own unless you have worked everything out with your parents beforehand, and you know exactly what you are doing.

NEVER EVER ACCEPT A LIFT FROM A STRANGER however friendly, concerned, respectable or safe they may appear to be.

Message to parents:

The safety of your child is paramount at all times and it is vital that parents create an emergency travel plan with their child e.g. if the bus does not turn up, where do they go?.. who do they contact?.. do they have money to catch the H1 service to Heanor?

Please discuss alternative travel arrangements with your child so they are confident in what to do if the bus is late or fails to turn up.
